rangement of Liver, Bowels and Kidneys. SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER. SYMITOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.
Bad Breath: Pain in the Side, sometimes the pain is felt under the Shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; general loss of appetite; Bowels generally costive, sometimes alternating with Extra with Considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful struation of leaving undone something which ought to have been done; a slight, dry cough and flushed face is sometimes an attendant, often mittaken for consumption; the patient complains of weariness and debility; servous, easily startled; best cough bouring, sometimes a pricity termsdien and, although artisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortiude to try it—in fact, distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when but few of them existed, yet a standard nafter death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons Traveling or Living in Un-healthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Billious attacks, Dirrines, Nau-sca, Drowslines, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no in-toxicating beverago.

If You have eaten anything hard of digestion, or fed heavy after meals, or steep-less at night, take a dose and you will be relieved. Time and Dectors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the allment may be, a thoroughly safe purgative, atterative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with husiness or places.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE,

Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

THE OLD REGISTRATION LAW. What Democrats Were Disfrauchise

grant me a little space in your columns fo the purpose of "straightening up" a matter of dispute between the editor of the Regi

ter and myself.1 ter and myself.]

The daily Register of February 28th contained the following declaration in an editorial, viz.: "There was a time when a man who didn't vote the Republican ticket was prohibited from voting at all," to which I replied, and was answered in the Register of March 1st, as follows: "If he has any curiosity to learn something about them (Registration laws) he can find hundreds of Democrate in this city, and thousands in (Registration laws) he can find hundreds of Democrats in this city, and thousands in the State, who will be able to give him the benefit of their personal experience." On March 2d I answered the above, giving my own experience as a Democrat, and called on the editor of the Register to verify the truth of his statement by publishing the names of two or three persons in the city who were thus distranchised from voting, simply because they were Democrats—as he asserted there were hundreds in the city. He declined not only to publish my card, but also failed to produce the names called for, but referred the matter to 'Squire Schultze for a list of such persons. I was unable to hear from Mr. Schultze until to-day, when he sent me the following reply, which speaks for itself:

MARCH 7th, 1883.

MARCH 7th, 1883. William Brown: DEAR SIR:-In answer to your note

DEAR SIR:—In answer to your note of inquiry calling on me, as suggested by Saturday's Register, for the names of a few persons in this city who were disfranchised from voting by the "Registration laws," simply because they were Democrats, I would beg leave to state that I know of none—never heard of any such either in the city or State—the assertion of the editor of the Register to the contrary notwithstanding.

JOHN W. SCHULTZE. I send you herewith my registration ook that you may see who were registered J. W. S. J. W. S.

I am also indebted to Mr. Schultze for the loan of his registration book. In looking over the names of persons registered I find the names of a number of well known prominent Democrats, a few of which are here given, and whose Democracy I have never heard questioned: John Blatter, Fred. Brinkman, Henry Bahre, Læwis Baker, George E. Caldwell, Peter Dillon, Charles Ellsworth, Anderson Fulton, Louis H. Grabe, Joseph Humes, John H. Hobbs, Samuel Humes, James Humes, Henry Kiewitt, Wm. B. Martin, Dahiel Maxwell, Dillon J. McCormack, Louis Steubenrauch, G. Adam Stoker, James M. Todd and August Wiedebusch, all undoubted Democrats. statement sets the matter at rest, as to the truth of falsity of the Register's declaration; ne being the authority to whom the Register

The Register is not considered very pro-referred.

The Register is not considered very pro-verbial for telling the truth, and the gen-eral public know right well its reputation for making declarations it is unable to "back up." The statement in this case may be another one "manufactured from the whole cloth," as in other instances by this enterprising journal.

I again renew my challenge to the editor of the Register to produce the names of the citizens of this city who were distranchised as asserted, with the admonition either

Wheeling, March 7, 1883. DEMOCRACY AND TARIFF.

The Agitation Will Go On-The Free Trade Fing the Only Banner. Trade Flag the Only Banner.

T. F. Bayard in U. S. Senate, March 2.

Mr. President, I will not profess that I am greatly surprised or disappointed in the result of the attempt this winter and at this session to procure a reform and a reduction of tariff taxation. I have not underrated nor do I now underrate the power of the organized manufacturers of this country, entrenched behind the forms of law, to defy the attempts to reform that law. I have regarded the formation of the Tariff Commission, for which I voted, I have regarded the attempt to frame this law for which I voted, as mere preliminary skirmishes in the struggle that is to come hereafter and of the ultimate result of which I have not a shadow of doubt.) These favored interests are strong. They have grown strong and rich by the iniquity and inequality of legislation. They have by means of privileges withheld from other classes of citizens become entrenched in wealth and power and in strength; but there is one thing stronger even than they, and that is the force of an intelligent and aroused public opinion. That is stronger and in the end will prevail. The day is sure to dawn, although this Congress has postponed it; their triumph is to-day, but the triumph of popular right and interest is as sure to come as the sun itself is to rise. r. F. Bayard in U. S. Senate, March 2,

The Free Trade Issue for 1884.

The Free Trade Issue for 1884.
Charleston (S. C.) New and Courier.

It increases, instead of lightening, the tax on many of the articles of necessity, and is framed in brazen disregard of the wishes of everybody except the clique of manufacturers and monopolists who seem to have had everything their own way. But their victory will prove a dear one in the end. Either there will be a new alignment of parties upon the great issue of a Tariff for Revenue only, in which case the Protectionists will surely go to the wall; or selse the Republican party must itself shoulder the responsibility for this monstrous Tariff bill which has been concocted and passed by a Republican Congress. Upon what better issue could the Free Trade Democrats desire to go before the country in 1884. tax on many of the articles of necessary, and is framed in brazen disregard of the wishes of everybody except the clique of manutacturers and monopolists who seem to have had everything their own way.

But their victory will prove a dear one in the end. Either there will be a new alignment of parties upon the great issue of a Tariff for Revenue only, in which case the Protectionists will surely go to the wall; or less the Republican party must itself shoulder the responsibility for this mond strous Tariff bill which has been concocted and passed by a Republican Congress. Upon what better issue could the Free Tarde Democratic tradition, there is no reason why Democratic Party Hust Hake the Fight on This Issue.

Though the doctrine of revenue is a Democratic tradition, there is no reason why Democratic protectionists may not go over to the Republicans and the Republican congress has drawn the line, and, whether the politicians are ready or not, the people are ready to divide on it. It is our opinion that for every Democratic protectionist we lose we shall gain two Republican free traders; but, whether we do or not, minus the acceptance of the wage proposed by the protectionists, we would not give a pinch of Kentucky tobacco for the Demo-cratic party.

traders, but, whether we do or not, minus the acceptance of the wage proposed by the protectionists, we would not give a pinch of Kentucky tobacco for the Democratic party.

The robber war tariff is to be supplanted by a yet worse one, because a more dastardly system. This thieving tariff is the gage of battle thrown down to the country by the Republicans. Are the Democratic party by the Republicans. Are the Democratic party by the Republicans. Are the Democratic first of the prick it up? It is the last chance offered them by an already over generous providence. If they siezait faithfully and bravely the party will live. If they hestate and vacilate it will die. There is no middle ground to stand upon. The people are ready for the fray. Let the politicians palter at their peril. The one issue for 1884 is That Thieving Tarify.

The bill as passed is a boom for the rich, a curse for the poor. Professing to protect labor it robs three or four workingmen to the extent of five dollars each in order to add a dollar a week to the earnings of one man, and the cost of living for that man is increased far more than his wages are. Congress was expected not merely to reduce the revenues, but the burden of taxation is even more unfairly distributed than under the old tax schedules.

Ladies FURNITURE

Do you want a pure, blooming Complexion? If so, a few applications of Hagan's MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's con-tent. It does away with Sal-lowness, Redness, Pimples, Blotches, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin. It overcomes the flushed appearance of heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes a lady of THIRTY appear but TWEN-TY; and so natural, gradual, and perfect are its effects, that it is impossible to detect its application.
